

Outdoor Equipment Rental Agreement Snowshoes

Rental Terms: Renters must be PEEC members in good standing. The rental cost for each item is in the chart below. This can be in the form of a credit card number, check, or cash. PEEC will require a credit card number as a deposit (see Additional Charges below).

Please read and sign the following conditions:

PEEC accepts no responsibility for damages or losses associated with the use of this equipment. Users should treat the gear with respect and return it to PEEC in the condition it was received. The equipment is intended for outdoor recreation activities and no other use is sanctioned by PEEC.

Additional Charges: PEEC reserves the right to collect additional charges if any of the following events occur.

1. Equipment is returned late following a rental. Other people may be waiting for their turn to rent the equipment. Please be considerate and return the items on the day they are due.
2. Equipment is lost, stolen,+ or destroyed. An amount equal to the retail replacement price will be charged.
3. Equipment is damaged during the rental. A charge based on the cost of comprehensive repair by a qualified technician to be chosen by PEEC will be required.

Deposit: The deposit (in the form of a credit card number) will be shredded after all equipment has been inspected and tested to ensure that nothing has been lost or damaged.
